The Fire Tables

Located at the forefront of the patio with 12 feet of flames elegantly burning from the center of two 10' granite tables. Up to ten people can fit at each table directly & the perimeter of the space offers more room for additional tables and/or standing capacity. During the spring and summer months, a beautiful line of illuminated trees will separate the tables from the Beer Garden to offer as much privacy as possible.

Between the views of downtown Belmont and the ambiance of the fire, these tables are the perfect setting for a cocktail party or any other petite event.
